AWATTING ORDERS FLOM GOVERNOR AMMONS

Sleep at Armory, Ready to Go to Trinidad

Local members of Company A. Colorado National Guard are waiting for orders to hasten to Trinidad where, it is said, there is much excitement in the mining camps. A report last night that Governor Ammons had ordered the state militia to the strike zone prompted officials of the guard here to gather together those members who could be found and up to a late hour last night, a score had been placed in readiness for the trip. Instructions to have a squad in

> Cui, ancy Bill Comes Up for Consideration in Senate This Week

> WASHINGTON Oct. 26 .- The cenate banking committee will begin tomorrow, behind closed doors, a reconstruction of the administration's currency bill. The issue is clearly drawn between the bill passed by the house. and the central bank plan proposed by Frank A. Vanderlip of New York. Whether the administration bill, backed by President Wilson's opposition to the aVnderlip plan, will emerge triumphant or whether some middle ground will be found between the twomeasures, now in the question agitating congress.

A majority of the senate committee admittedly (avors the Vanderlip plan, but administration supporters declare that such a measure could not be passed in the house and that the committee imist take the administration plan as a basis, if currency legislation is not to be delayed. Vanderlip Has Ulterior Motive.

Chairman Glass of the house commits. tee, who alded in framing the administration bill, issued a statement tonight, in which he said: "I have read that it was a custom in cerrain. fox hunts in Great Britain. when the fox was hard pressed; to draga red-herming across the scent to give the fox another chance. Of course the so-called money power in this country? is not fore no one whild dream of suspecting Mr. Vanderlip of being in the red herring business. "Yet it happens to be a fact that the house currency bill is designed to core rect the defects of a ayatem under which concentrated wealth has ruled the nation and that the Vanderlip schoole was projected at the eleventh hour, with the hope of sadefinite postponement of currency legislation, appropriate to the same of the table and introduced tention of Mr Vanderlip's schools was not actually designed to delay and frustrate currency legislation to will if given collaboration, have the Nievite

WAR AND SENTIMENT

A WASHINGTON dispatch says:

In was declared today by those who know President wifeen's attitude on these questions that no metter what emergency may arise, even the we drastic in-source are eventually required to I their the attustion in Mexico, under no cirgrange will the placent administration at ti clan or teriltorial rights of Mexico.

Let us disregard the sentimental aspect of the case for a moment and indulge in a little idle speculation idle because the possibilities contemplated never will be Nel ved Affilen years 240 when England fini with war with the Boers it proceeded to super the two Boer republics which was the very best thing that could have harmand their people. In so doing England followed a precedent established long before in other parts of Afric, in India and throughout the world, a pracedur. which has built up the British Sendire of today.

contrast 1715 with the course of the United States since the Spanish-Amerisen was made it a world power. Before beginning hostilities with Spain Coneress stupidly passed the Teller Amendmout plaging the withdrawal of the Amer-"I'm army from Cuba as soon at grace might be restored. Result armed intervention was twice necessary to but the Cultum republic on its feet, and it may even become necessary again. It would have been a thousand times better for the Cubins and not a cent coste a for the American people if the Augustan flag had never been lowered in the island incidentally, we paid Spain $20,000,000 in hard cash for the Philippines after they had been finally conquered and Spanish rule was at an end, Imagine Great Britain, or Germany, or France, indulging in such stupid sentil entality!

There is every probability now that within a few months at most an American army will be headed toward the City of Mexico, unless some wholly unexpected solution of the problem is found. And of course intervention will be preceded by an official promise to evacuate Mexico as quickly as possible after the object of the invasion is attained.

Sixty-five years ago the United States was at war with Mexico and in consequence acquired the territory which now forms the states of California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and parts of Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico not to speak of Texas, the original bone of contention. We do not contend that the United States should annex Mexico as the price of peace in the war which now seems imminent although such a course would be the best thing that could happen to the Mexicans. But it ought to make sure that they pay the cost of a conflict which will mean the expenditure of millions, of American money and thousands of American lives. The foolish sentimentality which marks the settlement of the Spanish-American war ought to serve as a lesson.

A NAVAL HOLIDAY

THE invitation to Germany to indulge in a "navai holiday," extended by Winston. Spanear Churchill, first lord of the British Admiralty, has not aroused much enthusiasm in the Kaiser's realm. This is not at all surprising when it is remembered that the Pritish navy is still more than twice as big as that of Germany, and that the Appliding phogram now under way contemplates the maintenance of this ratio, As one of the Berlin papers expresses it. Germany can hardly afford to take a holi- rempeatuous personeck.

day just as the English are putting the finishing touches to your new super-dread-

(that both nations shall agree not to start. indiding any new warships for a year) is hy no means impracticable. Germany cannot hope to equal Great Britain's sea power, however hard H by try, for the English supremacy is a matter of national life or death. Additional naval increase on both sides merely means additional heavy expenditures without changing their relative positions. The "naval holiday" plan would indefinitely preserve the present status and result in a saving of hundreds of millions yearly to each nation.

Anglo-German relations present a curious problem. The two nations never have been at war; there is no hereditary jealousy or hatred between them, and even now there is no question at issue which could justify war yet there is more danger of conflict between them than in the case of any other two nations in Europe. It is all a matter of commercial rivalry. The astonishing gains made by the Germans in the last two-or three decades in their effores to capture the markets of the world have frightened the British more than anything that has happened since the threat of a Napoleonic invasion. They forget that a powerful German navy is the natural accompaniment of a worldwide German mercantile marine, and see in it only a menace to their control of the sea. And the result is a rivalry which threatens the peace not only of Europe but of the world, Really, it is time for both nations to lav aside pride and jealousy and inaugurate a "naval holiday" which will last for years to come.

Postmaster-General Burleson's announcement that he intends still further toimprove the parcel post service, both-by increasing the maximum weight limit and reducing rates, is welcome news. The system, as inaugurated last January, was experimental, and its real usefulness to the people depends on the degree in within it is enede avaluable to them by high weight limits and lower rates. Here's libi the days and may it come soon when the expirit companies will be put where they belong ... out of thefores!

What's this? Hot -1"s'ied with acquire ing the De Cair News and the Denzer Talks, Mr. John C. Sheffer, of Chicago, has also Lought the Denver Republican At the risk of being a combination in satisfint of trade, Mr. Shaffer ought to buy the Post, too, and make it respectable. But he would find that the job of fumigating and disinfecting it would be one compared to which the task of cleaning up the Canal Zone was child's play.

The worst iniquity in an iniquitous conglom ration of unsuitable clothing," is the way a London fashion journal describes the shoes worn by the Honorable Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty. After which there is no doubt that Mr. Churchill ought to be summarily fired. He may be able to run the British navy, but to wear shoes which do not receive the approval of a London fashion editor is unpardonable.

M'CALL, MURPHY, CROKER,

From Har, ra Wrekly. Mr. Richard Croker stated on the witness stand many years ago that he worked for his own pocket all the time. That recork has entered into history. He also stated that Van Wyck was a resyor who was absolutely satisfactory to him. He has recently declared that McCall would also be the kind of mayor who would be satisfactory to him, and on this last question, as one the two others, there can be no possible doubt of Mr. Croker's accuracy. McCall, Muchny and Croker have taken the same attitude toward the forthcoming election. They took the same attitude toward Sulzer and toward Gayner. They are all perfect types of the Tammany product. If McCall is elected, Murphy will not only rule the city. He will rule the state

COUNTERFEIT BILL. Speaking of the caliber of the rank and file of the Democratic congress, it isn't very comforting that the chairman of the very important foreign affairs committee one of the three or four most important committees was the man who received a $10,000 contribution from Thomas F. Ryan's son with the message, 'Tell coor father I'm the same old Bill." It isn't very pleasant to reflect that Sulzer, in to the time of his election to the New York, governorship, bulked large among Democratic congress, men, and had a committee chairmanning which gave bim substantial control of our torsign telas. tions. To find men like Suizer in positions of important leadership is disturbing to the gublic belief n the Democratic party. This deterioration explains much of the public disposition to look to Wilson for isadership, and, in consequence, Wilson's control of congress and his party. 🤼

Cuddling a 19-months-old baby in her arms to protect it from a bliggard and at the same time endeavoring to shield her five other children, all less than S years old, from the driving wind and snow, Mrs. R F Branch of Colorado Springs was found on the prairie st Grand Junction Meeting the edge of Pueble late Saturday night by Pueblo police, according to advices received here yesterday. The woman was taken to headquarters, where it was discovered neither she nor her children had suffered from the cold All efforts to ascertain the residence in this city of Mrs Branch were unsuccessful last night. Neither could relatives of the woman be found According to the story she told the Pueblo police her husband and their children arrived there Saturday afternoon in a prairie schooner, going from Colorado Springs Her husband she says, took the warm and left them on the prairie ble amount of wisdom to do it 'Special mention is here made of the lumbs. Of course the flock would have lambs. But it is not left to the shepherd's own judament as to if relative value of the older and younger members of the flock: the work is to include the entire flock, not everlook ing the smallest It is significant that a share of Peter's attention is to be given to the lambs. There is the sincero milk of the word as well as the utrong meat of the goaps! The time to begin the spiritual development of the child is equally far back as its secular education, and more in the ers like Eunice and grandmothers like Lois would bear the world more men like Timothy who from a child knew the Holy Scriptures and never knew anything to the contrary

MINERS HAVE ONE OF BEST TEAMS IN WEST

Work in Mormon Game Shows Eleven Can Put Up Fierce Fight Any Time

DENVER, Oct. 28.-The victory of he Colorado School of Mines over the University of Utah, Saturday, particularly in view of the assertion by Coach C. W. Buckingham of the Mines that the timekneper cut the first three quarters to seven and a half minutes each, indicates the Mines will be a hardy antagonist in the remainder of the Rouky mountain conference garges Incidentally, the introduction by the Mines of the Yale shift, the first of the enetern football tactics to be shown in the conference games, places the Rosey mountain conference football upon a higher standard than herstofore. Colorado university's defeat of the Colorado Aggies yesterday is not indicative of the strength of either eleven, because of the street contail throughout the contest; which made it impossible for the Agries to make end

This year he wins the laterear. Chaimers car. That same Jason Larry Doyle, who wen the Chalmers cer last year, was looked over by a scout for an American league club while he was playing with Springfield of the Three Eye leggue and the scout advised against his purchase.

Doyle cost the Gianta $4,500, which was a record price for a minor league infielder in 1907. Daubert was acquired by Brooklyn via the draft proess in 1910 for the sum of $1,000, the Giants also putting in a draft for him and losing out in the draw. Sir Jacob never was in danger of being sent back to the minors after he reached the majors for the second time, and by June, 1916, had been dubbed the Hat Chase of the National league. He failed to obtain membership in the Society of the Three Hundred the first year he was in the National league. but in 1911 he hit at a .307 clip and in 1912 his record was 308. This year Daubert has honsted his stick er-dir to 350 and there is a possibility that he may be the batting king in the organization in which he plays. In his first 128 games this youar Daubert procured 165 safeties, going hitless only in 16 controversies. In each of 56 games he made one hit; in each of 31, two: in each of 12, three; and in each of two, four.

Daubert has hit at a .428 clip against the Cardinata, and at a .403 pace against the Phillies. The Cub pitchers have yielded him an average of $50, the Pittsburg hurlers of .342, the Red heavers of .329, the Boston gunners of 314 and the Giants' artiflerists of 278. The draft had hade only a fuger errors this season and only once has he committed two misplays in the same contest. His biggest day's work at the first corner was on April 29, When he cared for 20 out of the 21 chances that came his way,

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES AT ANNUAL SORROW COUNCIL

Mayor McKeeson and Nev. M. N. Smith Give Addresses at Big Memorial

A most impressive mervice was carrisd out at the annual council of sorrow of Duquesne council No. 18, Jr. O. U. A. M., at the Pirst Methodist church last night. In addition to two addresses by Mayor Charles McK-son and the Rev. Merle N. Smith, there were many musical numbers and a memorial service for the departed brothers. The service for the departed brothers was held in the middle of the evening, and consisted of a roll callof the dead. A large emblem of the lodge had been arranged, bearing, electric lights, 37 in all, or one for each one of the dead. As each de parted brother a name was read, a light. went out:

Mayor McKesson save an address. half eulogy for the dead and half praise for the living. The trend of his remarks was toward the idea of "living for one another." He said that the primary principle of the lodge was service. And he declared that the organisation was really doing a service both to the members and to the com-

The Rev. Merie N. Smith presched rt. B. Mantell, the Shakesperlan the main sermon of the evening and nctor, was in the city Thursday, and took for his subject. Christian Patriotism." He indersed the basic principles of the lodge, some of which are: The restriction of fmmigration, the teaching of but ones language in the public schools, the idea of living for one's country rather than to die for it. and the teaching of the Bible in the schools of the country.

He said that the idea of patriotisms generally was one of sacrificing one's life for one's country. Then he showed. that the real Christian idea was strongly contrasted to that conception of the word. The Christian idea of patriotism is to live for one's country; to give one's country the best of thought and work—that is real patriotism, the pastor declared.
